Dear Family of God.

“REVIVAL”

But there have been certain seasons called revivals—when God has: “poured His Spirit out on His people.” These times—also called awakenings—occurred when the presence of God is experienced in powerful manifestations of the Holy Spirit.

J. Edwin Orr

“Pray for revival in South Africa.” So read a sign on a bill board in Cape Town, spotted as we did our recent campaign there. In our spirit we say, “Amen!” But I wonder if people know what they praying for.

When most people pray for Revival, they’re probably asking for a wonderful experience @ church next Sunday at 09:00 A.M. But Revival is more than a Sunday morning experience. When you pray for Revival, you’re asking God for life-shaking experiences that will cost you plenty.

Revival is agonizing: It so terrorizes you over your sin that you repent deeply. Revival is consuming: It leaves you no time for hobbies, for chores around the house, for work, for sleep. Revival wrecks your appointment calendar, interrupts TV times, demands your full attention...and wears you out.

Usually when we pray for Revival, we’re thinking about the bad guys, and we’re telling God to save them. Little do we realize that Revival begins with us, the “people of God”. As a matter of fact, I’ve got a suggestion for those who want Revival: Don’t pray for Revival. Just repent of all known sin, do everything you’re supposed to do, give God all—not part, but all—your time and you’ll experience Revival in yourself—“first”.

Hosea 13:7 “They that dwell under His shade shall return; they shall Revive like the grain & blossom like the vine; the scent of it shall be like the wine of Lebanon.”

Yours in Christ.
